

do not dilute the Indiana telephone privacy bill as it now stands. It has greatly decreased the number of harrassing telemarketing calls I have received. I work nights and it has almost stopped the phone calls so I get a better nights rest. It has also improved the quality time i spend with my family. Its a bill that works do not tamper with